NARRATIVE:

Torres, a documented gang member, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 27. His convictions include burglary, exhibiting deadly weapon, resisting arrest, assault with a deadly weapon, multiple petty thefts w/priors, vehicle theft, terrorist threats, receive known stolen property possession of narcotic controlled substances, disturbing the peace and violations of parole and probation. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a four (4) year term for burglary. Torres was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 17th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Torres qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for petty theft w/3+ priors is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
